Die Iovis, 20. Febr. 1644.

An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons Assembled in Parliament.

Hereas the monthly sum of One and thirty thousand pounds was formerly agreed to be paid to the Scottish Forces under the Command of the Earl of Leven, out of the Estates of Papists, Prelates, Malignants, and their Adherents, and otherwise; And whereas afterwards by additionall Instructions, of, on, or about the ninth of March, 1643. by the Lords and Commons Assembled in Parliament, to the Committees therein named, Power and Authority was given to the said Committees for Raising of Moneys out of the severall Collections, Taxes, Revenues, and Assessments therein particularly mentioned, in the severall Counties of Nottingham, York, Durham, Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmerland; City of York, and county of the same; the Town of Nottingham, and county of the same; and the Town of Newcastle, and county of the same, for, and towards the payment of the said Scottish Forces, and such other Forces, as then were, or should bee raised, by Authority of Parliament in the said Counties and otherwise, as then was, or should bee directed by both Houses of Parliament: The said Lords and Commons finding, that the Moneys arising out of the Revenues and meanes last before mentioned, are not sufficient for the maintenance of all the said Forces, and that the said Counties being so much wasted and impoverished; the said Moneys cannot be raised as was expected, nor as the wants and necessities of the said Forces do require; and to the intent that our Brethren of Scotland may receive the greater encouragement to march Southward; The said Lords and Commons are resolved to raise the summe of One and twenty thousand pounds Monethly, out of the Sequestrations of Delinquents Estates, for, and towards the payment of the said Forces; But finding the Sequestrations to be charged with great sums of Money: so that for the present no Money can be had out of the same: Doe hereby Ordain and Declare, That the severall monthly summes of Money hereafter in this Ordinance mentioned; shall for Four months, beginning the First of March, 1644. be charged, raised, taxed, and levied upon all and every the severall Counties, cities, Towns, Liberties, and places hereafter mentioned, according to the Proportions, Rates, and Distributions in this present Ordinance expressed, the same to be payed monethly to the severall persons appointed by this Ordinance for the receiving thereof.
